ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

MODERN PROBLEMS was taught by Superintendent Fluent - with 27 seniors as the most modern problems he'd ever encountered.

Our Leaders . . .

SQUARES, CUBES, ANGLES: these were Leon Chappell's main concerns in his 5 math and science classes. He also coached basketball and assisted in football and track.

A STITCH IN TIME, warns Mrs. H. Rhodus to Janie Shemek. Mrs. R. also taught English to freshmen and sophomores.

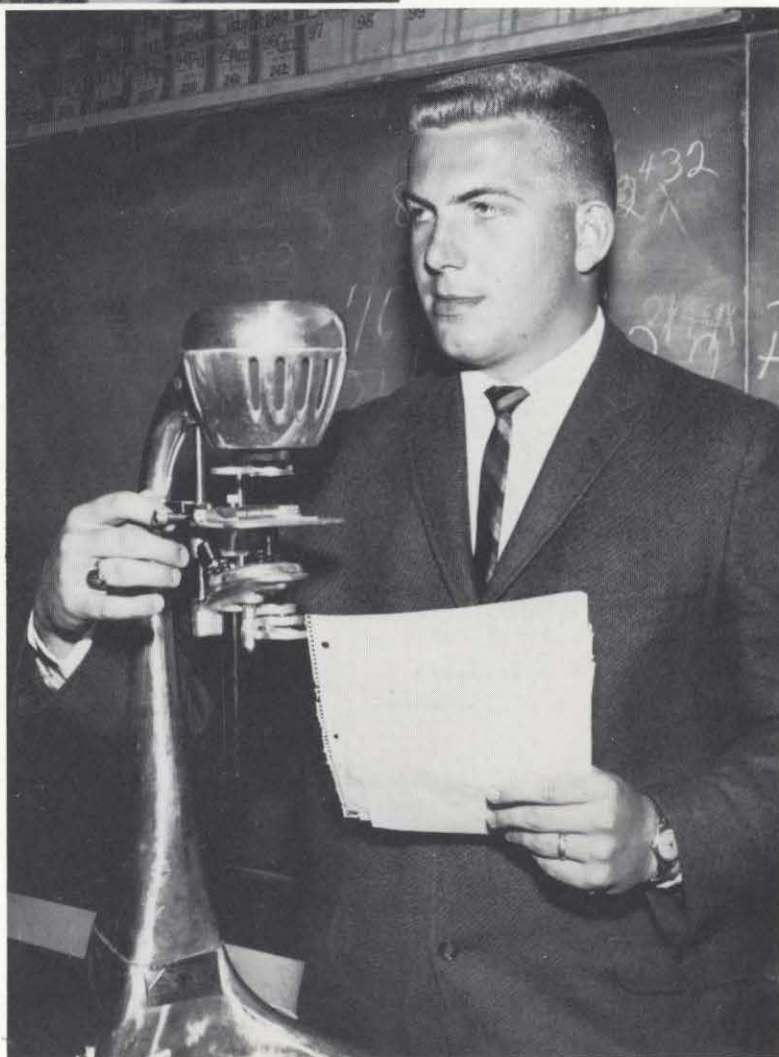

CLOCK WATCHER, Mrs. Marie Nelson gets set to give another timed writing to her typing class. She also kept shorthand, book-keeping and office practice students on their toes.

That Nelson Team

Don Nelson, science and auto driving teacher and head football coach, demonstrates the fine points of his new microscope to freshmen and sophomores.

ORGANIZATIONS

*All the world's a stage
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their
entrances;
And one man in his time plays
many parts, . . .*

They Had a Line . . . and Made Passes

THEY WENT THATAWAY says Coach Nelson to senior touchdown-man Warren Janssen.

Shall We Dance?

Merle Osten, senior heavy,
shows some pretty fancy foot-work during the Humphrey-Monroe game.
Not fancy enough: we lost.

WHAT'S THAT YOU SAY, MR. SLIVA? Coach Chappell and his boys, Meryl Loseke, Jim McPhillips and Don Babel look as if they might partly agree with him.

Chappell's Basket-Making Class

Eenie, Meeny,
Miney, Mo . . .

From the back they all look the same, but Coach knows he's talking to Jim McPhillips, Marv Conyers, Merle Johnson, Flip Shemek and Alan Johnson.

Scoreboard Watchers

PARDON MY REACH says Coach Chappell, surrounded by Bill Sliva, Meryl Johnson, Alan Johnson, Don Babel, Jim McPhillips, Larry Schaad and Flip Shemek.

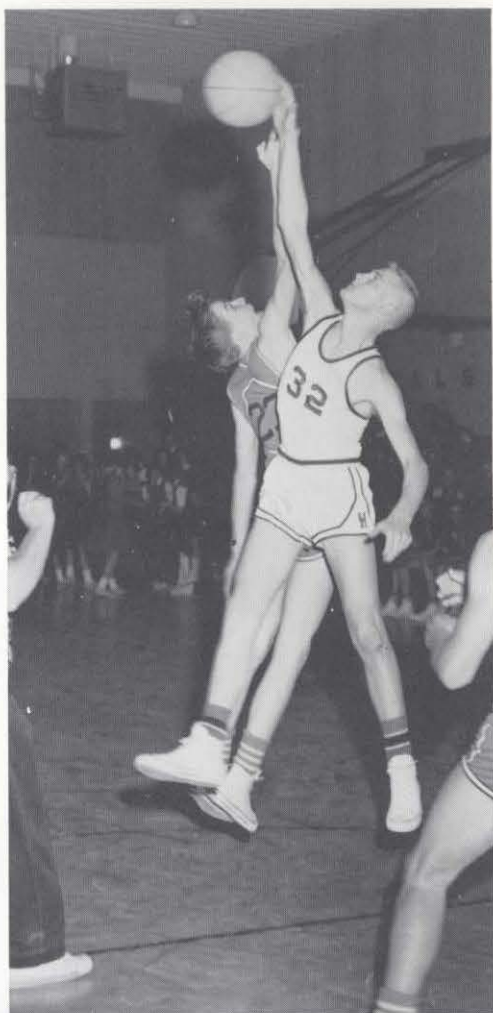

HOW HIGH IS "UP?" Just as high as Meryl Johnson, high-point man for the Bulldogs this year.

HE'S HIGH TOO, just like his big brother. Alan Johnson, a junior, goes way up to tip the ball our way in the Homecoming battle.

This Way for Action

V FOR VICTORY: The 1962 Bulldogs: J. Christensen, J. McPhillips, M. Conyers, Coach Nelson, M. Johnson, Coach Chappell, F. Shemek, A. Johnson, M. Loseke, T. Baumgart. And left holding the ball is Manager R. Bender.

Seniors Make Final Appearance

THE FASTEST GUYS IN SCHOOL - at least on the cinder track. Billy Shemek, Merle Loseke, Coach Don Nelson and Marv Bender plot their strategy.

They're Off and Running!

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES might be what the camera caught, but working hard most of the time were track managers Glen Brandt and Mark Eden.

HEAVE AWAY! Alan Johnson sharpens up on his shot put skill during track season.

On the Right Track

UP AND OVER are Marv Conyers and Don Babel, two of HHS's hurdle men.

Relaxing under the trees, the H Club and their Coaches: STANDING are Bill Sliva, Coach Chappell, Coach Nelson and N. Mejstrik. MIDDLE: J. Christensen, M. Bender, A. Johnson, M. Eden, J. McPhillips. FRONT: G. Baumgart, T. McPhillips, R. Bender, M. Loseke, M. Johnson, M. Conyers.

Leading the Team . . .

GO GANG GO and all that jazz. STANDING are the basketball cheerleaders: C. Gehring, D. Lichtenfeld, N. Arlt and J. Gronenthal. Football yell-leaders are: B. Moiczuk, C. Hanzel, L. Mohr and J. Shemek.

SHE'S JUMPY but she's the champion jumper of Coach Chappell's P. E. Class: Carolyn Melcher.

WELL, IT'S LIKE THIS says scorekeeper Warren Janssen as P. E. girl Vicki Paprocki confesses a little difficulty with her weight.

Humphrey's Lady Athletes

CHINNED AGAIN is Jean Greisen's comment as she become champion P. E. chinner of the year.

ASK THE MAN WHO DRINKS
IT BLACK:
L. Molczyk,
Banquet waiter, takes a tip from his big sister,
Bernie, one of the Juniors behind it all.

DISHPAN HANDS, ANY ONE? The Seniors sponsored a Pancake Supper this winter and if you weren't flapping pancakes, chances are you were on the dish-washing committee like Jim McPhillips, Warren Janssen and Glen Brandt. (OH, JOY!)

Busy, busy, busy!

READ ANY GOOD BOOKS LATELY, asks G. Babel, lost in a Victorian novel.

Pride and joy of the American Legion: Girls' Stater, Linda Mohr; Essay Winner, Nancy Arlt and Boys' Stater Alan Johnson.

STOP THE PRESSES! cry the HHS journalists: Sjuts, Loeffler, Babel, Brandt, Gronenthal, Gehring, Tomaseiwicz.

THE VERDICT IS YOURS admits Jim Christensen as the Juniors prepare for their trip to County Government Day in Columbus. Acting Judge is Janie Shemek surrounded by jury members Nancy Arlt, Linda Mohr, Alan Johnson and Bernie Molczyk.

The Organization People

Coach Chappell supervises a dry-run as the sophomores sponsor a car-wash. Workers are K. Eden, D. Lichtenfeld, M. Loseke and L. Schaad.
