HUMPHREY PUBLIC SCHOOL
LIBRARY BOOK

"the process which society uses to prepare its new members for full partnership is sometimes faulty. The system by which some organizations publish their memories also fails occasionally. We trust that no one, included in this book, will come as close to social failure as this annual came to publication failure."

John M. Miller

The Senior class, with the help of Sandi Schmidt and Tom Greison, were the annual staff for 1972-73. Mrs. Duane Miller was the sponsor and Lenore Shemek was the editor.

PIECES OF APRIL

Servers L-R: T. Priester, R. Ternus, M. Lloyd, D. Bender, A. Kresha, L. Brock, S. Miller, A. Ternus, D. Krings, and J. Mausbach.

The Servers for Prom put on a skit for those who attended Prom. In these skits the Servers acted out the lives of the Seniors a few years from now. It seems that all enjoyed the skits and left many wondering what their lives might be after graduation.

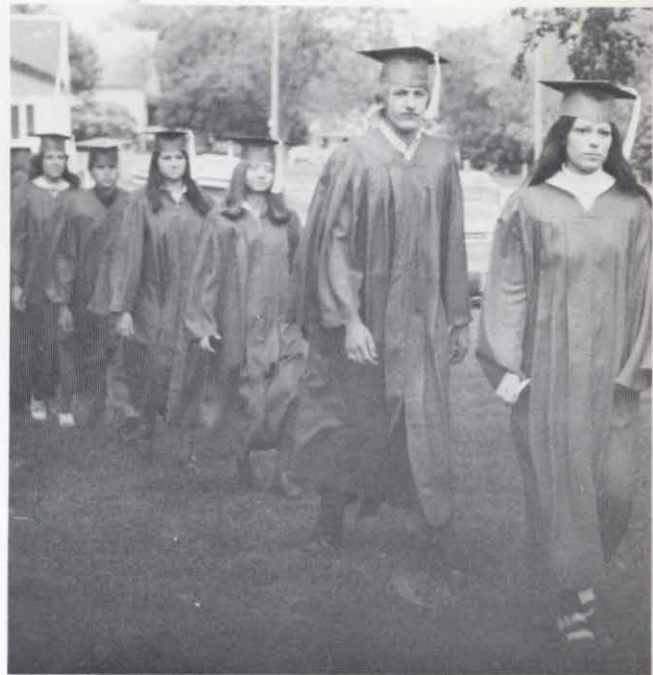

Escorts chosen by the Senior class were Juniors Gail Kudron and Tom Greisen.

After the graduates received their diplomas, the escorts, Tom Greisen and Gail Kudron, handed a blue mum to each. Gail is giving Kerry Hagerbaumer and Tim Sliva theirs.
